Winnie-the-Pooh goes to the North Pole

Winnie the Pooh goes to the North Pole.

Christopher Robin pulled on his boots. It was time for an expedition to the North Pole.

Pooh told rabbit to get ready.

Rabbit told Piglet to get ready.

Piglet told all the other animals to get ready.

Christopher Robin called everyone "Time for our expedition".

They all began walking and came to a stream. Pooh found a pole. Christopher Robin said "That's it. That's the North Pole".

All cheered "Hurrah!" and went home.

Christopher Robin put the pole in the ground. A sign said "North Pole. Discovered by Pooh. Pooh found it".
